Cato Larsen & Craig Bennett

This year's CCDF guest instructors are none other than Cato Larsen and Craig Bennett.

Cato Larsen is a very approachable and friendly instructor with an elegant dance style. Some of his better known dances are "Am I?", "Burning" and "Alfie". This will be his first time to Japan.

Craig Bennett is famous for such well-known dances as "Poker Face", "Playing With Fire" and "Hands Up". He is currently 28 years old and in addition to being a dance instructor, he also works for McDonalds. This will be his second time in Japan.

Cato and Craig are not only world-class choreographers, but world-class instructors and dancers as well. They both have a great sense of humor, and their workshops are sure to be a lot of fun. We hope you'll come join us at this year's CCDF event.

Note to overseas guests

We will have orientation information available in English. We will also have several people on staff who will help interpret any announcements etc.

For those registering from overseas, you may wait and pay at the door. However, we ask that you register as soon as possible. We require all registrations by November 11th. To register, please send a copy of the completed registration form to Martha Ogasawara. (You could also just send the necessary information in an e-mail.)

We will send a confirmation and more detailed information after receiving your registration.

Regarding accommodations

Accommodations are not part of the event package, but we would be happy to reserve a room for you at the Oustat International Hotel in Tajimi. Single rooms are 6,300 yen per night and twin rooms are 12,600 yen. This includes tax, service charge, and a complimentary breakfast. You can pay for your own hotel room when you check-in. There will be a free shuttle bus between the event and the hotel.
