Joey Warren & Amy Christian-Sohn

This year's CCDF guest instructors are the very personable Joey Warren and Amy Christian-Sohn.

Joey is a very friendly, hard-working instructor and choreographer who has been dancing since the age of 10. He's from West Virginia, is only 27 years old, but travels to teach at events all over the world. Some of his better known dances are "Talkin To The Moon" and "Last Minute".

Amy is originally from Singapore, but now lives in Michigan. She is from a musical family and has been dancing for 40 years. She has studied Classical Indian Dancing, Hip Hop, Salsa, Ballroom etc. and has been line dancing since 2001. Some of her well-known dances are "Feels So Good" and "Jai Ho".

Joey and Amy are both excellent instructors who enjoy interacting with the dancers and dancing on the floor with them. This will be the first time to Japan for both of them. We hope you'll come join us at this year's CCDF event.

Note to overseas guests

We will have orientation information available in English. We will also have several people on staff who will help interpret any announcements etc.

For those registering from overseas, you may wait and pay at the door. However, we ask that you register as soon as possible. We require all registrations by November 9th. To register, please send a copy of the completed registration form to Martha Ogasawara. (You could also just send the necessary information in an e-mail.)

We will send a confirmation and more detailed information after receiving your registration.

Regarding accommodations

Accommodations are not part of the event package, but we would be happy to reserve a room for you at the Oustat International Hotel in Tajimi. Single rooms are 6,300 yen per night and twin rooms are 12,600 yen. This includes tax, service charge, and a complimentary breakfast. You can pay for your own hotel room when you check-in. There will be a free shuttle bus between the event and the hotel.
