About the instructors

Michael Barr, Michele Burton
& Darren Bailey

👑 This year's special guest instructors are Michael Barr and Michele Burton from the US and Darren Bailey from the UK.

Michael and Michele, who are from California, are beloved by Japanese dancers and the feeling is mutual. They were the guest instructors at our 10th event and this will make their 5th time in Japan!

Darren, 31 years old, is from Wales. He and his partner Lana Williams came to fame on the BBC program "Strictly Dance Fever" in 2006. In addition to teaching couples dancing, he is also very involved in the line dance world, and is very much in demand.

All 3 instructors are very popular with the dancers, and have choreographed more well-known line dances than we can mention here. They are thorough, friendly instructors and they teach a wide range of dances.

Note to overseas guests

- We will have orientation information available in English. We will also have several people on staff who will help interpret any announcements etc.
- For those registering from overseas, you may wait and pay at the door. However, we ask that you register as soon as possible. We require all registrations by October 18th. To register, please send a copy of the completed registration form to Martha Ogasawara. (You could also just send the necessary information in an e-mail.)
- We will send a confirmation and more detailed information after receiving your registration.

Regarding accommodations

- Accommodations are not part of the event package, but we would be happy to reserve a room for you at the Oustat International Hotel in Tajimi. Single rooms are 6,300 yen per night and twin rooms are 12,600 yen. This includes tax, service charge, and a complimentary breakfast. You can pay for your own hotel room when you check-in. There will be a free shuttle bus between the event venue and the hotel.
